State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Kay Miller, who is retiring from the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) after serving the state for more than 47 years; and,

Whereas, Kay began her employment with the state as a data entry specialist with Central Data Processing on May 27, 1968, and in 1983, she accepted a position with the Department of Water and Natural Resources (DWNR) as the person in charge of the Word Processing Center; and,

Whereas, In 1997, Kay became a senior secretary in the newly named Department of Environment and Natural Resources working in the Division of Financial and Technical Services and later transitioned to DENR's Fiscal Office where she's a key member of the office who organizes and publishes DENR's "Inside" which is a valuable source of weekly information about DENR; and,

Whereas, On June 4, 2015, Kay is retiring to enjoy a long and well-earned retirement, and she will be missed by her friends and colleagues; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 4, 2015, as in South Dakota, and I join with her family, friends, and colleagues in wishing her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-first Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Fifteen.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor
